PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Members and Friends of the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre:

Alexander Wolcott once said, "Everything I like is either illegal, immoral or fattening." This is indeed a sad state of affairs. However, one can enjoy Ann Arbor's Civic Theatre and not become involved in any of the above. The Civic Theatre is incorporated, therefore is legal. Any immorality would be strictly in the mind of the individual; over that we have no control. Civic Theatre members work hard; we have no fairy godmother all of which adds up to a lean and healthy look.

"The Country Girl" climaxes the most ambitious season in our history. For this we have to thank first our competent director, Ted Heusel, the active members, the inactive members and last but certainly not least, our patrons. A theater without an audience would be as hollow as a giant tree falling in the forest, without human ears to record the sound. We need you, and we hope you will find a need for us somewhere in your busy day.

Again thanking you for your patronage and inviting you to be one of us in some capacity in the future, I am

Sincerely,

G. Davis Sellards

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR — TED HEUSEL

Mr. Heusel holds an AB degree and an MA degree which he received in 1951 from the University of Michigan where he appeared in many productions, and portraying many lead roles ranging from Napoleon to Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Heusel has worked in radio for the past four years and recently completed a series of historical programs for the Ford Foundation, which is now being broadcast over the Voice of America. For the past thirteen weeks he has appeared on a television series every Sunday for the University of Michigan Tele-Course over WWJ-TV.

Mr. Heusel's professional drama experiences range from "Come Back Little Sheba" with Joan Blondell to "The Crucible" with E. G. Marshall. Last summer, Mr. Heusel was the Director of the Saline Mill Theatre, one of the most successful summer theaters in the country. Tonight, Ted strikes a serious note as he gives us "Country Girl" which brings down the curtain on another very successful season. Our many thanks to him for his very able guidance and assistance.

- ★ GORDON BADGEROW—"Larry" makes first appearance on Civic Theatre stage tonight. Gordon comes from Sparta where he graduated from high school in 1950. After two years at Grand Rapids Junior College, he spent two years in the army, most of which was at Trieste, Italy. He is currently enrolled in the Lit School of the University of Michigan where he is majoring in English.
- ★ MARK LUEDI—"S.S. Guard" first appeared with Civic Theatre in "The Thirteenth Chair" about 13 years ago. His most recent work has been in "The Ten Little Indians," "Stalag 17" and a one act "Sunset by Slansky." He has also been active in a Methodist Church drama group. Ann Arbor High School, the University of Michigan, and the Air Corps claim him as an alumnus. He is an engineering laboratory technician at Fram Corporation and is now living in Dexter.

★ KENNETH MacDONALD—"Frank Elgin" makes another appearance with Civic Theatre tonight, which adds to his already long list of acting accomplishments. Among the plays too numerous to list, is one of his favorites that we will all remember. Ken's portrayal of Lieut. Roberts in the production "Mr. Roberts," won him the Oscar for the Best Actor. He is a past president of the Theatre and was very active during his three years on the Board of Directors. Ken is Sales Manager for the Washtenaw Broadcasting Co., WPAG and WPAG-TV. In addition to a weekly three-hour radio show, he is also producing two television shows on Channel 20; "So You Know Ann Arbor," a TV Telephone Quiz Show on Tuesday nights and an hour and a half TV Variety Show on Friday nights called "Club 20." Ken is active in city politics, currently serving as a vice chairman of the city Republican Committee. He presently resides at 1130 S. Forest with his wife and a lovely family of five children.

NOTES ABOUT THE CAST

- ★ ROBERT LOGAN—"Bernie Dodd." This show marks Bob's sixth appearance on the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre stage. He has appeared in "Holiday," "Ten Little Indians," "Mister Roberts," "Born Yesterday" and most recently in "Stalag 17." His role of Ensign Pulver, in "Mister Roberts" earned Bob the "Best Supporting Actor" award for the 1952-53 season. His appearance in "Born Yesterday" was a last-minute decision, when he was called upon to fill in for a man who had become ill and was forced to drop out. Last spring Bob appeared in the Student Players production "Detective Story." Bob is a member of the Civic Theatre board of directors and heads the publicity committee. He is employed at the Veterans Administration Hospital where he is in charge of the photographic department.
