Ann Arbor Art Fair, the Original, 50th Anniversary
Downtown Library
Multi-Purpose Room & Lower Level Display Cases
June 2 – July 19

American Institute of Architects Huron Valley 2008 Honor Awards Recipients
Downtown Library
3rd Floor
June 2 – July 16

Ink Drawings on Paper by Aleksis Lahti
Malletts Creek Branch
May 2 – June 16

Breakfast in the Library and Other Collages by Karen Gallup
Malletts Creek Branch
June 18 – July 29

MC Frontalot & The OneUps @ AADL
Saturday & Sunday, June 27 & 28
& @ Videogame Night @ Top of the Park
Monday, June 29
Unless otherwise noted, events will take place in the Downtown Library Multi-Purpose Room.

English as a Second Language (ESL) Conversation Groups
Join a conversation group for adults learning ESL. Meet friends, practice communication and learn new vocabulary. TOEFL preparation is available. All skill levels welcome!
Tuesday & Wednesday, June 2 & June 3, 10:00 – 11:00 am

One Hour to Better Resumes with Michigan Works!
DT Computer Training Center
Design, build and update your resume with Michigan Works! specialists. Participants will also create a free email account to save resumes for universal access. Note: You must be registered for the first session to attend the second session. Registration required: online at aadl.org/classes, at any AADL location, or call 327.4555.

Film:
An American Opera: The Greatest Pet Rescue Ever!
Filmmaker Tom McPhee will present and discuss his 2007 award-winning film. An American Opera (not rated) follows the pets, vets, officials, rescuers, and adopters of the animals in New Orleans during the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.

Make It a De-LIGHT-ful Summer
Nancy Finlayson shows slides and gives tips on including lighthouses in your summer vacation plans.
Learning Is a Family Thing: Dollars and Sense • DT 4th Floor Meeting Room • Get tips on credit management, budgeting and financial smarts for all ages. We’ll have interactive sessions for parents/caregivers and separate supervised activities for youth age 3 and up, refreshments, and a book to take home. Cosponsored by the Washtenaw County Literacy Coalition and funded by a grant from the United Way of Washtenaw County.

Tuesday & Wednesday, June 9 & June 10, 10:00 – 11:00 am
Improve Your Job Search with Better Cover Letters & Employer Research • DT Computer Training Center • Learn how to write a cover letter with great style, formatting and content! Participants will also learn how a little research about your potential employer can make your letter stand out. Note: You must be registered for the first session to attend the second session. Registration required: online at aadl.org/classes, at any AADL location, or call 327.4555.

Thursday, June 11, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
From Ideas to Innovation: Developing New Medical Technologies • Dr. James Geiger, Exec. Director of the UM Medical Innovation Center, and the 2008/09 class of Innovation Fellows discuss the development of new medical technologies that improve health care and services. This event is made possible through a Partners In Research Program with the National Institute of Health. Cosponsored by the Michigan Institute for Clinical and Health Research and UM Medical Innovation Center.

Friday, June 12, 9:00 am
Personal trainer Andrew Phelka discusses Active Isolated Stretching (AIS), a physiologically based technique for flexibility and rehabilitation.

Friday, June 12, 9:00 am
LOCAL MOTION 2009 Summer Reading Begins! Get out – walk, bike, run – and register for the AADL Summer Reading Program for Youth, Teens and Adults! Register at any AADL location or online. It’s all about LOCAL MOTION!

Friday, June 12, 6:30 – 7:30 pm
Lowrider Car Talk & Slideshow • Grade 6 - Adult • Car enthusiast Erik Howard will illuminate Lowrider car culture and its origins. Weather permitting, we’ll have a few Lowriders in the staff parking lot!

Saturday, June 13, 2:00 – 3:30 pm
A Great Day In Harlem (1958): An Epic Moment in Jazz • Traviswood Branch
Stuart Johnson of the Michigan Jazz Record Collectors will discuss the history of a 1958 photograph of 57 jazz musicians in Esquire magazine and play recorded examples of the music of some of the musicians.

Sunday, June 14, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
Chesstastic! • Travewood Branch • Grade K - Adult

Sunday, June 14, 2:00 – 3:30 pm
Concert: Wizzer Robin with the Remus Lupins and Tonks and the Aurors • Harry Potter fans: Don’t miss a wreckin’ afternoon with The Remus Lupins! Ann Arbor’s own Tonks and the Aurors will open!

Sunday, June 14, 3:00 – 4:30 pm
The King of Champagne Operettas: Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss Jr. • DT 3rd Floor aadlfreepace • Music specialist Richard LeSueur discusses Die Fledermaus and plays recorded examples.

Monday, June 15, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Veterinary Vaccination Update: What Every Pet Owner Should Know • Malletts Creek Branch • Alice Liberson, DVM, owner of Dogma Caniamto, gives an update on vaccines for your pet.

Tuesday, June 16, 10:00 – 11:00 am
One Hour to Better Job Interviews • DT 3rd Floor aadlfreepace
The experts from Manpower will discuss the strategies for successful job interviews, and how to prepare, interact, and follow up with style.

Tuesday, June 16, 7:00 – 8:00 pm
Summer Reading Kick Off! Concert, Gemini! The Ark, 316 S. Main St. • Preschool - Grade 5 • Register for the Summer Reading Program from 6:30 – 7:00 pm, then enjoy Gemini!

Wednesday, June 17, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Metroparks, Recreation and the Quality of Community Life with Robert Marans, Metroparks Commissioner

Thursday, June 18, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Wine: Snobbery Not Necessary • International wine judge Ron Sober discusses styles and types of wine.

Thursday, June 18, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Take A Hike! @ Lakewood Nature Area • Lakewood School, 344 Gralake • All Ages • Meet in the school parking lot and take a botanical walk with the staff of the City of Ann Arbor Natural Preservation! Dress comfortably.

Friday, June 19, 6:00 – 7:00 pm
Culture of Struggle, Culture of Faith: A Juneteenth Event with Storyteller LaRon Williams • Travewood Branch
Grade 6 - Adult • Juneteenth is the oldest celebration commemorating the end of slavery in the U.S. LaRon will tell moving stories of the African American experience in the Western Hemisphere.

Friday, June 19, 6:00 – 8:30 pm
Street Fighter IV Tournament • Grade 6 - Adult • The game that started it all is BACK… and bigger than ever! We’ll have smash open play, too.

Saturday, June 20, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
Gundam Fest • All Ages • AADL is building a whole new collection of all things Gundam! Be among the first to try out the new stuff!

Sunday, June 21, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
Boom Blox Bash Party Tournament • All Ages • Thanks to Electronic Arts, you can play the new Boom Blox Bash Party – and get a chance to win a copy of the game! Beginners welcome.

Sunday, June 21, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
Descent Into Board-dom with Vault of Midnight • DT 3rd Floor aadlfreepace • Grade K - Adult • Staff from the Vault will be here to teach/play family-friendly games such as Samurai and Wasabi!

Wednesday, June 24, 6:00 – 7:00 pm
Pool DJ Marv: Turntable Workshop • DT 4th Floor Meeting Room • Grade 6 - Adult • In conjunction with the Ann Arbor Summer Festival, the groove master teaches the art and technology of turntablism.

Wednesday, June 24, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Introducing the New Online Product: Ann Arbor Observer, Then & Now • Local historian Grace Shackman and Ann Arbor Observer editor John Hilton discuss the history of the Observer and demo AADL's new online product.

Wednesday, June 24, 7:00 – 8:00 pm
Shrinky Dink Craft Sensation • Malletts Creek Branch • Grade 4 - Adult • Make some artsy accessories from shrinky dink material!

Saturday, June 27, 10:00 – 11:30 am
Photowalk: Capture the Beauty of Ann Arbor • All Ages • Bring your camera, hear some tips from local photographers, and walk around Tree Town to take some great shots! The result: an online exhibit of your photos on picture/annarb, available on aadl.org.

Saturday, June 27, 2:00 – 4:00 pm
The OneUps: Concert & Video Discussion • Learn about the world of game music and remixes with the masters! The OneUps will show the original games and music, then perform their own versions.

Sunday, June 28, 12:00 – 3:30 pm
Discussion with MC Frontalot & Screening of Nerdcare Rising
Here’s your chance to talk with the “Godfather of Nerdcare.” MC will answer your questions about music, Nerdcare HipHop and beyond. At 1:30, we’ll show the 2008 documentary Nerdcare Rising (not rated), which follows MC on his first national tour, revealing the roots of the genre, the complexities of the artists, and MC’s fight for nerd stardom.

Monday, June 29, 6:00 – 11:00 pm
Videogame Night @ Top of the Park! • Ingalls Mall
In conjunction with the Ann Arbor Summer Festival, AADL presents a special concert at TOP, featuring MC Frontalot and special guest, The OneUps! After the concert, watch The King of Kong while a gaming tournament is underway under the stars!

Tuesday, June 30, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Food Allergies with Local Allergist Ben Song, MD
Dr. Song, of Allergy & Immunology Associates of Ann Arbor discusses how to recognize allergic symptoms and what to do about them.