PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1958-59 season has been a successful one, thanks to your support and attendance. May we point out that we gave our first Saturday matinee, we have presented plays that the audiences have enjoyed, and that we will endeavor to continue our efforts. We continue with Workshop on Mondays at the School House—Ellsworth and Wagner Road. We cast for "Abe Lincoln" on March 9-10 at the High School. This is an extra. We have been asked to do Civil Defense Script for Radio. We will need actors. We have our annual "Oscar" banquet coming up and election of officers. It has been a good year. Thank you all.

JOHN W. RAE, President

SPECIAL - APRIL 17 and 18

in cooperation with the Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission, Ann Arbor Civic Theatre will present in Ann Arbor High School Auditorium

"ABRAHAM LINCOLN"

by JOHN DRINKWATER

Directed by JERRY SANDLER (U. of M. Broadcasting Service Producer-Writer, remembered as Willie Loman in our "Death of a Salesman.")

"In 'Abraham Lincoln,' Drinkwater has done far more than write a dramatic biography. He has delivered . . . a message on spiritual values to his age, showing these values instinct in a great man . . . It is a masterpiece."—Thomas H. Dickinson in "An Outline of Contemporary Drama."

TRYOUTS for this large cast play will be held from 7:30-10 p.m. at Ann Arbor High School, March 9, West Cafeteria; March 10, Room C-220.

Director Sandler requests prior reading of the script. Call NO 2-2400 or NO 2-7991 for loan scripts.

The Ann Arbor Civic Theatre is most deeply indebted to the following patron members and appreciative of their gracious support in helping us bring this season's program to you.
