KEY EXCHANGE

by Kevin Wade

September 20, 21, 22; 27, 28, 29
October 4, 5, 6

1984

A long run off-Broadway success, this exceptionally bright and witty first play explores the romantic pitfalls of dealing with the dilemma of unencumbered freedom versus entangling commitment. T. E. Kalem of Time magazine called Key Exchange "tart, funny and tender, with an undertow of the erotic."
